Details:

The flat plot of land with a large established tree population is located on the outskirts of the pleasant village of Consell and offers views as far as the Tramuntana Mountains. It is accessible from 2 sides, is connected to the mains electricity, and has a private water source supplying water free of charge, accompanied by 3 cisterns.

The existing stone house already standing on the plot has 2 levels, original antique elements, and a roof which has already been renovated. The new owner, when in possession of an appropriate building permit will be able to design his dream house according to current, up-to-date building requirements!
